

FUND FINANCE ASSOCIATION TO HOST NINTH ANNUAL GLOBAL FUND FINANCE SYMPOSIUM ON MARCH 24-26 2019 IN MIAMI

NEW YORK, February 22, 2019 – The Fund Finance Association (FFA), a non-profit industry association in the fund finance market, will be hosting its 9th annual Global Fund Finance Symposium on March 24-26, 2019 at the Fontainebleau Miami Beach in Miami, Florida.

This sold-out event brings together investors, fund managers, bankers and lawyers for three days of education and networking within the fund finance market; it holds particular appeal to CFOs and those responsible for arranging financing within their respective investment firms. More than 600 industry professionals from over 150 different firms are currently registered to attend.

This year's conference will feature panels and discussions on a variety of industry topics, and the FFA is delighted to have Anthony Scaramucci as this year's keynote speaker. Mr. Scaramucci is the founder of SkyBridge Capital and in 2016 was named to President Trump's 16- person Presidential Transition Team Executive Committee, and served as the White House Communications Director over a short period in July 2017.

In addition to the Global Fund Finance Symposium, the FFA will be hosting its 5th Annual European Fund Finance Symposium on June 20th in London and its 3rd Annual Asia-Pacific Fund Finance Symposium on September 25th in Hong Kong. Information about tickets and registration for all conferences as well as Women in Fund Finance events can be found at www.fundfinanceassociation.com. Attendance is complimentary for fund managers and investors to all FFA conferences.
